

—at last an economical coffee

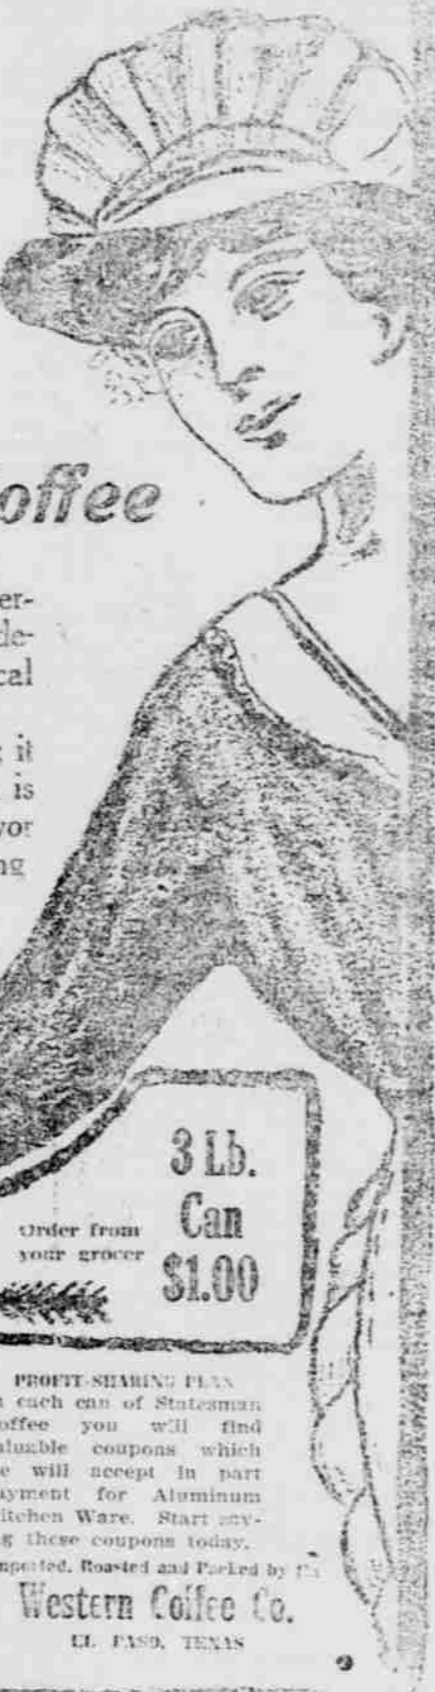

A cent's worth of ground coffee makes a cup of liquor whether you use 25-cent coffee or Statesman Coffee at 35 cents per pound. That is; one pound of 25-cent coffee will produce 25 cups of liquor or one pound of Statesman 35-cent coffee will produce 35 to 38 cups. Cheap coffee is strong, but not strong in the flavor you desire.

Statesman Brand Coffee

is mild but full of that rich coffee flavor.

Fineness in coffee flavor costs no more and is certainly more desirable. Strength is cheap but undesirable. Fine coffee then is the most economical coffee, health value and satisfaction considered.

Statesman Coffee taste is instant gratification; it is refreshing, comforting, cheering; all of which is produced by its mild strength and fineness of flavor—it satisfies the taste, and yet it costs such a nothing

The Theater

There would appear to be some special attraction about a Japanese play that enlists the public's sympathy in a peculiar fashion. The setting of "The White Pearl" is for the major part in the land of the chrysanthemum, and viewed merely as a scenic production, is something which should not be overlooked by lovers of the beautiful.

As a drama, "The White Pearl" is also out of the common run of things. The plot is an interesting one, and a beautiful love story is interwoven with it. If this were not sufficient to make the story worth while, "The White Pearl" shows in the latest detail the everyday life of the Japanese people in a manner which makes the witness familiar with the ways of our trans-Pacific neighbors more clearly than by the reading of a dozen books.

Miss Marie Doro, as the heroine of the story, gives a display of the dramatic art of a quality to be expected from an artist of her position, while her loveliness has never been seen to better advantage than in the part of the Geisha girl in the latter part of the picture.

"The White Pearl" will be repeated this afternoon and night, and, rain or shine, is sure to be seen by large audiences at the Royal.

"THE HONEYMOON TRAIL"

Once again people were turned away at the Central Theatre last night at the second performance by the Raymond Teal company of the musical play, "Mr. Henpeck".

A previous notice has dealt with the main item on this program, but several of these deserve a second reference, while others which have not been referred to should not be allowed to pass without a word.

A very great hit with the audiences on both evenings was the song, "When I Get Back to the U. S. A.", sung by Mr. Long and the chorus. This number is unusual from the fact that in the refrain two melodies are sung at the same time, Mr. Long singing the original song at the same time the chorus is singing another air, the two melodies blending into a perfect harmony. The originality of this number was immediately appreciated by the auditors, who were not content until Mr. Long and his able (and charming) background had repeated the item three times.

Mr. Long was heard to advantage, also, in the "Lonesome Melody", his voice being recognized as an exceptionally pleasing one, while it can be at once seen that his vocal training leaves no opening for criticism.

Miss Corinne Carney, who, so far, during the company's stay, has shown marked cleverness in her delineations, played the part of the dominating wife to perfection, and made one feel almost sorry for the old man so amusingly portrayed by Mr. Fritz Fields.

Mr. Claude Kelly represented the old-time desperado in an excellent manner, showing to special advantage in the end of the second act when he runs up against the unexpected. Each appearance of Miss Hazel Lee is the signal for an ovation, her success in all her numbers being something of which she may well be proud. Tonight and tomorrow night "The Honeymoon Trail".

PICTURE SPELLS POWER.

"The intention of this picture was to portray the great need of the preparedness of peace spelled P-O-W-E-R." With that statement J. Stuart Blackton, author of the scenario, "The Battle Cry of Peace", which opened at the Olympic last evening, struck the keynote of the whole situation.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" will play at the Central next Tuesday and Wednesday. "The Battle Cry of Peace" surely fulfills the every intention of the author, for it portrays a poignant truth in a characteristic way that cannot fail of appreciation. It is not exactly a pretty thought to think of our great, big, splendid New York, with its magnificent and imposing structures, watching like Druids of old the equality as splendid labor, crumpling like a man the chains of the enemy; it is not a pretty thought to think that the failure of the men and women of our communities to demand of our congressmen a vote for more appropriations for our army, and more especially, perhaps, the navy; it is not a pretty thought to feel that the advocates of peace are not exercising their very best judgment in their nation-wide campaign for such; but J. Stuart Blackton, somehow, has struck a timely theme for his scenario, a timely theme that vividly the total inadequacy of our preparedness, without which the nation can be assured of "peace and plenty" and "peace with honor."

It stirs within one that inevitable spirit of patriotism that is born within one, and while many in last night's audience felt, perhaps, that the horrors of "unpreparedness" were a bit overdrawn, it instilled into them a little germ of thought that will gradually assume proportions of magnitude. The dramatic play of the play is all that could be desired, and the general effect is calculated to please even the most exacting.

Some idea of the magnitude of the production may be gleaned from the fact that 25,000 National Guard troops, 800 members of the G. A. R.,

URGES EVERYONE TO QUICKLY GET ON WATER WAGON

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way. "TWIN REDS" A LAUGH.

The bright little sketch, "Twin Reds", presented by the Manhattan Co. last night proved to be one of the most entertaining comedies yet produced here by that popular aggregation of players, and though the attendance suffered to some extent from the unkindly weather, the reception accorded to the company was almost equal to the greetings received by them with a full house.

Mr. Tommy La Rose has never played with more spirit and abandon than last night, and had the house in good humor from his first appearance. Arthur Harrison appeared in quite a different character from that usually taken by him, and played two distinct parts with great success.

Miss Stella Mayfield was clever as always, and her song with chorus made a distinct hit. An entirely novel dance by Miss Ruth Leslie with Wm. Truheart received the approbation to which it was entitled, and each of these artists were enthusiastically received in their song numbers.

Miss Flo Collins sang Moore's ever popular melody, "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms", delightfully, and well deserved the applause received at her appearance and at the conclusion of her song.

It has been remarked of the Manhattan chorus, always an efficient body, that their work seems to improve with every performance, and they were certainly in good form last night. The harmony of their dancing and unquestioned knowledge of their work helps largely to establish for the Manhattan company the reputation for efficiency which it enjoys wherever it has made a stay.

Tonight the company will perform a clever comedy, entitled "The Waiter and the Chef", which has been very favorably mentioned when shown in other towns.

Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

SPEECHES MONOTONOUS.

LONDON, March 14.—There is a remarkable monotony about the openings of speeches in the House of Commons. During a recent day's session forty-five speeches were delivered, and in 30 cases the speeches began with the pronoun "I." Only fifteen members could think of anything more original, and many of these were only slight variations of the routine, as for instance one member's "In rising to say a few words, I should like, etc."

WONDERFUL TALE OF AN ACTRESS

Struggled with Sickness and Discouragement; How Relieved.

Dayville, Killbuck, Conn.—"I shall be glad to have every woman know what I know now, after using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Although I am only 24 years old, I have suffered for the past eight years. I hated the doctors, for a doctor told me to give up the stage where I was playing with my husband.

I had bearing down pains, my health failed me, and I could not work on the stage, and wasn't able to tend my baby or even get around myself. I was always downhearted and discontented with the world, and only lived for the sake of my little girl. The doctor said to move to some quiet little town away from the noisy city, and I might be able to live and feel well, so I went to Dayville in November. At that time I was so sick I could not walk around, and my husband kept house and I stayed in bed. One day in January I read your advertisement in a newspaper, and I sent for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and started taking it. Within two weeks time I was a different woman, could get around, and felt so good that it was a pleasure to do my housework. I felt contented and happy, and now am the picture of health, and am tempted to return to the stage. We appreciate my health as the most precious thing on earth."—Mrs. H. L. KLENNETT, Box 55, Killbuck, Conn.

AUTO CLUB WILL HOLD BIG MEETING TO STIR UP GOOD MEMBERSHIP

Committee Reports to Directors Recommend Membership Campaign and Aid to Officers in Enforcing Laws.

Recommendations that a membership campaign be started immediately and that the Warren District Auto Club take action looking toward the support of the city and county officers in the support of the traffic laws and regulations were made by the special committee, of the organization, which reported at last night's meeting.

The committee, which consisted of Dr. Leonard, Mead W. Powell and L. J. Overlock, proposed to the directors an immediate campaign for new members. It was pointed out that the automobile enthusiasts of the District, at the present time, outnumbered those of a year ago by a great number and that a considerable number was very desirous of entering the ranks of some organization the interests of which were to aid the motorist generally.

For some time the Auto Club has been dormant, to a greater or less degree. The recommendations along the membership line of last night, however, will result in an immediate rejuvenation of the organization, with a greatly increased membership and a better and more active institution in every way.

Traffic problems came in for their share of attention at the hands of the directors. That careless driving and forgetfulness of traffic laws, both in the city and county, were inexcusable seemed to be the consensus of opinion among those present. Undoubtedly something will be done by the club which will aid the various city and county officers in the enforcement of the rules.

Next Thursday evening, March 30, at 7 o'clock, a general meeting of the members of the Club has been called and at that time important business will be transacted. Pending the election of a secretary to fill the position, made vacant through the resignation of Joe Gray, Mead Powell will act.

"KING SOLOMON" DIES

LONDON.—James William Wood, a self-styled "King Solomon" who, a quarter of a century ago, headed the religious sect known as "The Army of the Lord" died February 17 at the age of 85 years. During the early eighties Wood was a revivalist in Australia, associated with Prophet Dowie in the trusteeship of a Baptist chapel, but later he came to England and engaged in faith healing. Being of striking figure of patriarchal appearance, with leonine face and white beard, he deeply impressed those with whom he

WHY MEN CHEW TOBACCO

It's the Only Way That Real Tobacco
Hunger Can Be Entirely Satisfied

"PENN'S THICK" THE IDEAL CHEW

Since tobacco was first introduced to civilization, nobody has ever discovered so supremely satisfactory a way to get all the flavor and enjoyment out of it as chewing it. And no other form of chew can give you the hearty, wholesome, juicy flavor that you get from a delicious high-grade plug tobacco, like Penn's Thick.

The secret of the greatest chewing satisfaction lies in the selection of your chew. Among plug tobaccos the brand that gets the most enthusiastic endorsements is undoubtedly Penn's Thick. The reason for this is not hard to find.

Penn's Thick is made exclusively of ripe, white Kentucky Burley—the most richly-flavored chewing tobacco that grows. Still more, only the very choicest of all the Burley leaf is used for Penn's Thick, and you get its natural flavor.

This choice leaf is selected with the most painstaking care, is stemmed by hand, is thoroughly washed free of all foreign matter and is pressed into plugs so slowly that not a drop of juice or an atom of the natural flavor escapes.

The result is a sweet, mellow, luscious, satisfying chew that cannot be obtained in any other tobacco than Penn's Thick. Try a 10c cut today.

came in contact, even people of wealth and position. He acquired a building at Brighton, which he called "The Sanctuary of Jehovah," and presiding there as "King Solomon," he established his sect, "The Army of the Lord."

Many enthusiasts sold all their possessions in order to go to live within the circle of his influence. Wood donned robes of purple and gold and sat on a throne while his followers, men, women and children, danced before him in a central space until they fell exhausted at his feet.
